Sixt Limousine Service is Europe's leading chauffeur company

- Travel and tourism experts hand out World Travel Awards for especially high standards of quality

Sardinia/Munich, 10 September 2015 – Europe's Leading Chauffeur Company – the Sixt Limousine Service has received the World Travel Award (WTA) in this category. The award is considered to be the travel and tourism industry's equivalent to an Oscar and is based on a poll of industry experts worldwide. The Sixt Limousine Service had already been awarded with the WTA as the leading chauffeur company in the last two years – in both Europe and the United Arab Emirates. This year, the prize was awarded as part of a ceremony in Sardinia.

The Sixt Limousine Service offers first-class services, specially trained, multilingual drivers and premium vehicles – including the Rolls-Royce Ghost. It also meets a broad range of requirements, from shuttle and event services to airport transfers and sightseeing trips. The Sixt Limousine Service is primarily aimed at travellers with particularly high standards for their mobility. The diplomatic corps of various countries are among the users.

Regine Sixt, Senior Executive Vice President Sixt International: 'We are delighted that our Limousine Service has again received the World Travel Award. The prize confirms that we are right to insist on providing our customers with tailor-made premium services, always bringing them to their destination with the greatest possible comfort and offering them a unique travel experience.'
