Sixt continues expansion in the Caribbean

- Premium mobility in Grenada
- Opening of six new franchise markets within the past two years

St. George's, 29 October 2015 – Sixt announces the opening of its first rental location in Grenada. With this, the international mobility provider continues its strong ongoing expansion in the Caribbean. Within the past two years, the company has opened a total of six new rental operations in the region, including beautiful business and leisure such as Puerto Rico, Trinidad & Tobago, Turks & Caicos, St. Lucia and Curacao.

In Grenada, Sixt is the first and only international car rental company with an inter-terminal location at the Maurice Bishop International Airport. The rental office is conveniently located just outside the arrival hall. The branch offers premium services as well as a wide range of vehicles including Economy and Compact vehicles as well as Four-Wheel-Drive SUVs and Minivans. Customers pick up and drop the vehicles directly at the airport, thus saving valuable time both at arrival and departure.

Next to Grenada, Sixt is already planning further locations in Aruba and Jamaica which are planned to open in the next months.

Ruediger Proske, Senior Vice President Franchise at Sixt: "We are very excited and pleased to welcome Sixt Grenada to our network and to increase our presence in the region with one of our trusted existing partners. Being the first and only international car rental company at the international airport of Grenada emphasizes the commitment and capacity of our partner to the Sixt Franchise and is a key stone for our ambitious plans in the region.“

All Sixt mobility services can be booked online on www.sixt.com as well as via Hotline: +1 888 - 749 - 8277.
